Meet our Instructors

Sister Maria de la Revelación Castañeda, S.S.V.M. holds a B.S. in International Affairs and Economics from Mary Washington University in Fredericksburg, VA. She has worked for different immigration law firms in Houston, Texas and Washington, DC and as the Hispanic Coordinator for Youth Ministry at a Diocese of Arlington. As a religious sister in the Institute of the Servants of the Lord and the Virgin of Matará since 2005, she has served the Church in numerous ways: for seven years as the Mission Education Coordinator for the Office of Missions in the Archdiocese of Washington; for six years as the Director for Religious Education at St. James Catholic Church in Mount Rainier, MD and for the past six years in internal ministry for her religious community. The seeds of Sister Revelación's missionary vocation stem from her multicultural background. Born in Houston, Texas, she lived for 15 years in Tegucigalpa, Honduras and then moved back with her family to Houston, Texas to finish high school. She currently resides in the Provincial House of the Institute in Washington, DC.

Sister Anthony Mary Diago, R.S.M. has been a member of the Religious Sisters of Mercy of Alma, Michigan for 18 years. She is the Director of the Office of Consecrated Life of the Diocese of Phoenix in Arizona since 2014. She holds Masters Degrees in secondary education as well as in theological studies from the University of Notre Dame in Sydney, Australia. Her prior service was to promote vocations for the Archdiocese of Sydney from 2010 to 2014. She served as an assistant to the Archbishop of Boston, Cardinal Sean Patrick O'Malley, OFM Cap., from 2006 to 2010. Her first mission was to serve her community's apostolate in Rome from 2003 to 2006.
