

Member Message June 26, 2020

Dear Members of the CMSWR,

I am writing to let you know that I will be resigning from the position of Executive Director of the CMSWR effective December 23, 2020.

It has been an honor for me to work for the Council for the past two years and the beauty of your charisms and your dedication to religious life has been a privilege for me to support.

As you well know, CMSWR has a unique role to fill in fostering the future of religious life in the United States in these times which so badly need the witness of women religious. I will be helping in any way possible with the transition to a new Executive Director and I certainly will be keeping the Members and the mission of the CMSWR in my prayer.

In Christ,

Sister Mary Christine Cremin, R.S.M.
Executive Director

Vision Statement

The Council of Major Superiors of Women Religious will be a collaborative body of life-giving women religious committed to "the full flowering" of religious life in the United States by placing our collective feminine genius at the service of the Church and one another. CMSWR will be a wellspring of hope and a trusted resource for the ongoing revitalization of religious life and the New Evangelization.
