

Support the Little Sisters of the Poor

Dear Mothers and Sisters,

The Little Sisters of the Poor are set to have their case heard before the Supreme Court on Wednesday, May 6th. Becket Law, who is representing the Little Sisters of the Poor in their Supreme Court case has organized a virtual Rally and Rosary in support of the Little Sisters. Due to the coronavirus and restrictions on group gatherings, there cannot be a large group present as was organized for their 2016 court appearance and victory. The hope is for many to gather together online and in prayer for the Little Sisters. Ten Sisters from the Washington D.C. area will gather on the steps of the Supreme Court to pray the Rosary.

The Virtual Rally begins at 8:45 am EST on Becket's Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/becketlaw/>

9:00 am - They will air messages from leaders around the country.

9:30 am - the Rosary will be prayed by a group of 10 Sisters at the Supreme Court as well as small groups linked virtually from each of the three provinces of the Little Sisters of the Poor in the United States.

10:00 am - The Oral Argument starts and can be viewed live on CSPAN
