

Mother Anna Grace Neenan, O.P.

Mother Anna Grace entered the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia Congregation in 1996 and currently serves as Prioress General of the Congregation and President of CMSWR.

Mother Anna Grace holds degrees in Elementary Education and Educational Administration and has served in the community's apostolate as a teacher and principal. In addition to her initial theological formation, she spent a year studying spiritual theology at the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas, the Angelicum, in Rome and is currently working toward a Master's degree in Thomistic Studies at the Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC.

For the six years preceding her election as Prioress General in 2018, she served as Director of Novices, guiding the sisters in the first four years of formation. As Prioress General she supports her sisters in living in the footsteps of St. Dominic, in ever-deeper communion with the Lord and in service to the Church through the Congregation's apostolate of education.

Mother Anna Grace was re-elected President of CMSWR in 2023 and Prioress General of the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia in 2024.
